

THE FULTONIAN

1940

Published by THE SENIOR CLASS
of
FULTON HIGH SCHOOL
FULTON, NEW YORK

THE FUL

THE ALM

On the banks of the old Oswego
Where Indian camp fires gleam,
Now stands our Alma Mater,
True guardian of the stream.
Tho' our strength dwells ever with us,
We never stronger seem,
Than when we are defending
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

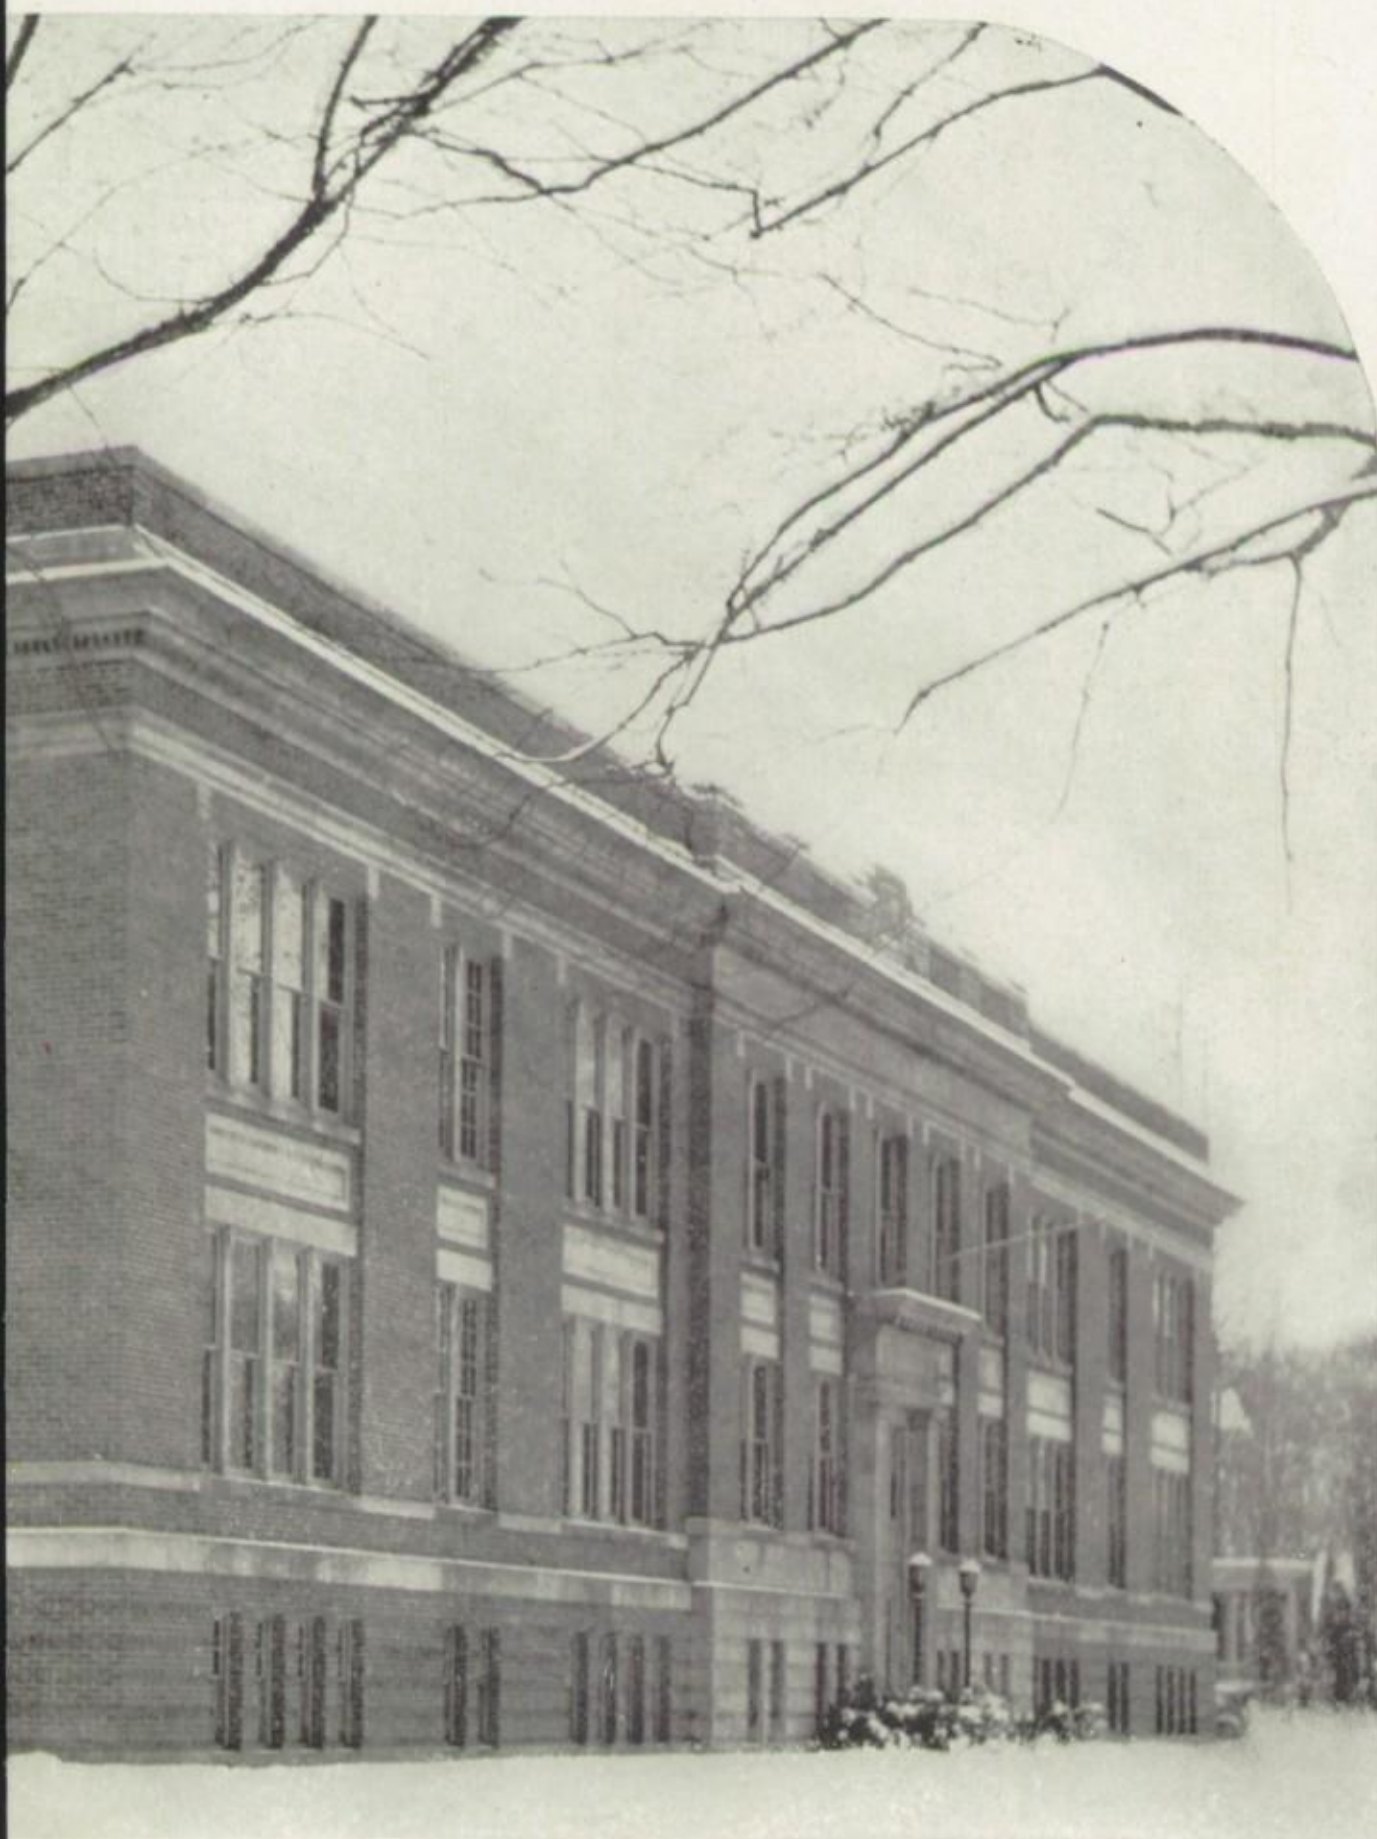

TONIAN

A MATER

Though it be on field or platform,
That our valor meets the test,
We are fighting for old Fulton,
And she bids us do our best.
Then with victory as our portion,
Our banners may be seen
Waving high in glorious triumph
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

In these halls of our ambition,
True loyalty we learn,
With courage to uphold it,
Ever steadfast, sure and firm.
So that when in life's broad vineyards
Earth's fruits we seek to glean,
We shall always live to honor
Fulton's royal Red and Green

FOREWORD

Because music brings joy and entertainment to all of us, the Senior Class of 1940 has chosen "Music" as its theme, and "Scaling to Greater Heights" its motto.

The Yearbook Staff hopes that the 1940 Fultonian will help preserve the memories of these years spent at our Alma Mater, and that our motto will help set the pace for future Senior Classes to "Scale to Greater Heights."

MISS MCGREEVY

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1940 wishes to honor one who will soon be leaving the halls of Fulton High School behind her. Although she has been with us for only a short time, she has already won the honor and respect of both the students and faculty. She has been a true friend and a capable teacher. Her assistance on the Yearbook Staff and in other school activities have made us feel that "It's the Little Things That Count."

We, the Senior Class of 1940, dedicate our Fultonian to Miss Mary McGreevy.

*Good luck, James.

THE BUZZ

"The Buzz" has been a monthly "note" on the "scale" of school activities. A double "Welcome Freshmen" issue in September proved an immense success. On November 3 and 4, fourteen staff members and faculty advisers traveled to Syracuse to attend the Empire State School Press Association. E. S. S. P. A. awarded "The Buzz" a Class A rating. A double anniversary issue appeared in December celebrating the sixth anniversary of our school paper.

COMMENTATORS' CLUB

The Commentators' Club was organized to stimulate interest in current international, political, social and domestic problems and to promote intelligent discussions concerning these issues.

From September to June, debates between the student members, talks by Mr. Berry and Rev. Warren, a "Professor Quiz Program" and round table discussions have constituted the year's program.

BAND

"BOOM-BANG" blared forth the Fulton High School Band every seventh bell on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The band, organized this year, under the direction of Mr. Wagner, has proven to be a definite asset to the school.

The band blossomed forth in bright new uniforms of green and white trimmed with gold. Mr. Wagner gave a concert in coordination with the Girls' Glee Club. More power to them!

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Every second and fourth Tuesday of the month, the Arts and Crafts Club held a business meeting followed by craftwork. Students interested in art and craft projects were privileged to pursue a hobby of crafts, painting, or drawing. The girls, under the direction of Miss Erb, besides painting and sketching, decorated wooden objects, did leather work, and cork craft. Under the direction of Mr. Frawley and Mr. Francis Kieper of Oswego Normal, the boys worked with shop metal, plastics, and weaving. Keen enjoyment and an appreciation of art work were derived by members of the club as they turned out innumerable decorative and useful objects during the year.

CARPE DIEM

To cultivate a background for college social life, the members of Carpe Diem—meaning "Seize Your Opportunity" met the second Wednesday of every month. Juniors and Seniors taking the College Entrance Course are eligible for membership. Entertainment and useful information are provided at meetings by guests, skits and group discussions with college as the main theme. Dancing in the gym after meeting was an added pleasure which completed a full, enjoyable evening.

The Senior Play of 1940 was unusually humorous in action; and an added touch of realism was given by the members of the faculty, who for the first time, took part in the annual Senior Play.

The action centered around the difficulties of Henry Aldrich, the seventeen year old trouble maker, in “What a Life.” Barbara Pearson, the sweet young president of the Junior Class, is the apple of Henry’s eye. George Bigelow, Henry’s arch enemy, was also intent upon winning Barbara’s affections.

It happened that some band instruments had been stolen from Henry’s high school and naturally Henry is blamed for this loss. The entire play is based upon the search for the instruments and the action takes place in the principal’s office.

RIFLE CLUB

Our "top-notch" rifle team has had a hard time finding opponents this season because new orders closed the New York State Armories to civilian use. However, the Fulton High team enjoyed two "close-score" games with Ilion High School.

The first call for varsity football brought out fifty candidates, and three weeks of intensified training followed before the first game.

Our squad went to Oswego on October 21 for the big game of the season. Hard and fast playing gave Fulton a 14-0 victory over the Blue and White; thus a six year jinx was broken. The scoring was credited to Vescio and Curran, while Herb Knowlton kicked for the extra point.

The game against the Alumni was an easy victory for the team with a final score of 14-6, credited to Vescio, Hollingsworth, and Knowlton, while Lance Anderson scored for the Alumni.

The following Saturday, September 30, Fulton won another victory over Carthage with a score of 32-7.

On October 7, the team journeyed to Cortland, and although an early victory was expected when the ball was inside the Cortland 10 yard line, the line held and the score remained 0-0.

The following Saturday, October 14, found Fulton playing another scoreless game against Oneida.

The undefeated North High gridmen of Syracuse had their record broken when they lost to Fulton with a score of 20-0. Hollingsworth, Cushman, and Knowlton were the high scorers.

Although the field at Recreation Park was partially covered with snow, the game between Onondaga Valley was a thrilling game. Fulton scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, and a 25-yard field goal in the second made the score a 17-0 victory for Fulton.

For the first time in ten years, Fulton had an undefeated year. The team had a final score of 83 points, only losing 7 points to opponents.

Fulton 32—Carthage	7	Fulton 14—Oswego	0
Fulton 0—Cortland	0	Fulton 20—North High	0
Fulton 0—Oneida	0	Fulton 17—Onondaga	0

BASKET BALL

After the final choice was made the 1939-1940 basketball squad was off to another long and strenuous basketball campaign.

Students first saw a glimpse of their team in action when they won a thrilling game from Auburn on December 8 with a score of 38-32.

On December 20, Fulton went to Oswego where they played against one of the best Oswego teams in years. Oswego won the game with a 43-25 victory.

North Syracuse lost to Fulton by a 32-30 count on February 21 on their own court. Colocino led the attack with nine points.

The Red Raiders, however, fell before a superior Eastwood five on February 2, with a score of 45-36.

BOWLING

"Up 2*" "Up 3!" Bowling was very popular this season with Miss Ruth Gibbons as organizer. Fulton bowled four times against Oswego, winning nine out of twelve games. They also bowled twice against Baldwinsville but were defeated both times. There were fourteen teams, four of which attended "The Womens National Bowling Congress" in Syracuse, New York.

Highest bowlers were: 1. Marvel Austic. 2. Dorothy McDougall. 3. Phyllis Dashnau. 4. Shirley Peacock. 5. Bessie Cunningham. 6. Isabell Strothers. 7. Jean Leonard.

CHEERLEADERS

"Fight for old Fulton—Fulton must win!" Again we cheered F. H. S. on to victory at football and basketball games under the direction of the following cheerleaders: John Hollowell, Evelyn Safranski, Mary Carr, Mike Fisher, Danry Grant, Dorothy Shaver, Frances Parks, Isabelle Strothers. Coach, Mr. Bateman.

THE FULTONIAN

BOWLING

Fulton placed sixth in Upper New York State's Bowling Tournament. Members of the team who were chosen for their performance in the intramural league were: Bill Bedell, Dan Castlevechi, Charles Genese, Carl Hanlon, Lyle Salsbury.

TRACK

When Mr. Bateman called for candidates for the track team about twenty boys reported for duty. After several weeks of hard training, the boys were unable to beat Oswego.

Spring training consisted of preparation for a trip to Utica to compete against many high schools from up-state New York.

BASEBALL

Assistant Coach John Muscalino had sixty eager baseball hopefuls practicing daily either in the gym or out-of-doors when the weather permitted.

Among the candidates who reported for practice were nine veterans of last year: Don Cealie, Bill Collins, George Curran, Joe Cushman, John Czeriak, Edward Potocnak, Carmen Vescio, Charles Wray, and Henry Karkut.

Eugene Tracy was winning pitcher in the first game of the season when Fulton beat Oswego 11-10. Fulton showed that they had lots of power at bat and were going to be a hard team to beat.

NOON-HOUR

Something new in the sports program of F. H. S. was the noon hour activities. Those who were unable to earn a letter by participation in the evening program were organized into teams by Assistant Coach John Muscalino. The girls were coached by Harvia Gillespie and the boys by Leland Rogers. The girls played softball, basketball, badminton, and volley-ball in the gym. For extra credit towards their block letter they danced, swam, hiked, skated, skied, and bicycled. Some of these girls went to Oswego to play basketball with the evening teams.

UPPERCLASS LETTER GIRLS

VOLLEY BALL

"Your serve. Our serve" were the cries heard when nine teams turned out for the volley ball season. The winning team, captained by Julia Zarichny, has held the championship for three years.

However, the usual Phoenix and Oswego games were not played because they felt their teams were unprepared to meet Fulton girls.

Players on the winning team were: Flora Cardinali, Cora Chetney, Margaret Clinton, Nettie Dexter, Johanna Fuchs, Marjorie Taylor, Jean Trask, Helen Zarichny, Julia Zarichny, Captain.

NEWCOMB

Eight teams, each from a different gym class, entered the Newcomb contest. The semi-final winners included three teams who played off after school, but after the final battle, the team captained by Ellen Scheele was victorious over Navie Elhage's team.

Players on the winning team were: Betty Morin, Mary Ellen Parsons, Hazel Rusaw, Marjorie Townsend, Irene Taylor, Jane Suydam, Mary Gifford, Ellen Scheele, Captain.

HOCKEY

Team work counts! This year's victorious senior team is the same team which has been playing together for three years. They won every game in both '38 and '39 tournaments. The team was captained by Phyllis Dashnau in 1938, and by Nettie Dexter in 1939. Captain, Nettie Dexter; Manager, Martha Woodworth; Co-Manager Flora Cardinali. Others on the team are: Phyllis Dashnau, Marian Hudson, Julia Zarichny, Peggy Hill, Helen Best, Nina Clark.

ARCHERY

"Zing"—go the strings of the seven Fulton High School bows, as the modern Dianas aim for the heart of the target.

Under the direction of Mr. Berry, this year's group of archers made much progress. Several of the girls have been out for this sport every year.

Neil Walsh was manager of the equipment.

Rosa Drake, Laura Gifford, Mary Haskell, Jean McGivney, Helen Murray, Pearl Patrick, Martha Woodruff.

BASKET-BALL

Guard her! Shoot! Seven teams came out for basketball. The best team proved to be that captained by Tessie Munger with Angie Procopio as manager. The official referee was Elizabeth "Liz" Boland.

Four teams played during the noon hour, and the best players from the eleven teams went to Oswego.

HIKING

Tramp! Tramp! About sixty girls came out for hiking this year, making five groups which were headed by Jean Trask, Helen Best, Frances Morey, and Jennie Russo. Many of the girls went hiking to reduce—with pockets full of cookies, sandwiches, and crackers. All the girls were required to take ten hikes which were not to include travel on the main roads—their favorite goal being the Airport Inn.

PING PONG

"Your serve; Under the net!" Just twenty-five girls came out for the ping-pong tournament. The final game, a heated match between Julia Zarichny and Johanna Fuchs was won by Julia (by one point).

Champion—Julia Zarichny.

Second—Johanna Fuchs.

"Kenny" Winter led the Ping-Pong enthusiasts, staging a brilliant comeback after the loss of his first game of the Annual Spring Ping-Pong tournament. Winter won two games from "Buzz" Besaw. Final scores were 21-20, 21-20. In the first match against Oswego, Fulton won an easy victory of 15-1 on their own tables but tied with an 8-8 score on the latters.

SOCCER

All the games were packed with thrills from beginning to end. Forty boys showed up for the first soccer practice under the direction of Mr. Horrocks. From these, three complete teams were formed with Ray Nadeau, captain, and Robert Maude, manager. The teams played a nine-game schedule, winning 1; tieing 3; and losing 5.

JACK FROST

When Jack Frost on your window panes
Leaves pictures of woodlands and winding lanes,
Oh, how you wish that you were he
So you could paint windows and leaves on the tree.
When you go to bed your window is clear,
But if you draw your bed up near,
You may see Jack Frost come stealing up
With his paints and brushes in a frosty cup.

In summer he takes a long, long nap
But when winter comes he dons his cap,
And sets gaily off o'er the crusty snow
To greet brother North Wind with a merry "Ho! Ho!"
Then they set off together like mischievous boys,
Bent on filling the children full of all kinds of joys
At seeing Jack Frost and the old
North Wind
Whiten the windows and make the trees bend.

MARY SCHREMPH

MY KITE

A robin sees with envious eye,
Your gorgeous contrast on the sky,
Gliding past the sun's hot face,
Onward, upward through colorless space
Like a song-bird in the sky,
My colorful kite is flying high.

CAROL SCHEELE

MOMENTOUS MELODY

Borne like a feather upon the wind
A light note of music drifted in Sweet and melodious midst city din
Soft and resonant as a violin

From far away I could hear the beat
The regular rhythm of marching feet
The trumpet raised shrill notes to meet
The quietness of the village street.

DOROTHY MacDOUGALL

A SNOWSTORM AT NIGHT

From out the impenetrable sky
White moths of downy fluff
Float earthward on silent wings
The brilliant aura surrounding
A guardhouse of the night,
Catches the winged messengers of winter
And illumines them with momentous glory
All too soon the magical spell is broken.
Wings become tired
And the moths at last reach their destination;
Forming another thread in the Great white blanket covering the city.

DOROTHY MacDOUGALL

MOONBEAMS

Moonbeams, why do you prattle 'gainst
my window?

Why are you always beckoning?
Why are you always there at night
To tempt me so? It isn't right.

Moonbeams, I want to follow you
where'er you go

Thru summer, spring, and winter
snow;

I want to dance where the fairies
dance,

If you should lead me there by chance.

Moonbeams, why, with your majestic light,

Come you only when it's night?
Does the sun with its golden glow
Place you where I do not know?

Moonbeams, you are to me a mystery
You go where I can never see.

When daylight peeps thru glittering dawn

Then, dear moonbeams, why are you gonee?

ANGIE PROCOPIO

THE AUTUMN LEAVES

Between the summer and winter,
The wind undresses the trees,
The leaves, now changed from green
to red,

Come dropping down upon my head;
They scatter over all the ground,
With a wild and rustling sound.
They rise in the air like a raging fire
From the sweep of the wind;
This is Autumn blowing in.

ROBERT GOSS

SPRING DREAM

The woodpecker sat in a crabapple tree
Drumming in time to the spring
symphony;
The robin was bursting his red throat
with song;
The merry brook hummed a gay, rushing song;
A boy on the bank with a fishing rod
Tapped timely rhythm on moss-covered sod;
The sounds about him wove a dream
Of winds, and bird-songs, and a rippling stream.
